FAREWELL MRS REEVES

We are so sorry to be saying goodbye to Mrs Reeves today, who has been a Teaching Assistant at Cam Hopton for the last 6 years, but has made the decision to move on to new and exciting adventures. She has been an exceptional member of the Cam Hopton staffing team and we will all miss her (& her delicious baked goodies!) very much! We thank her for all of her hard work over the years and wish her the very best of luck for the future.

FOOTBALL ACHIEVEMENTS

We have some fabulous news to share regarding some community football achievements of Cam Hopton pupils.

Phoebe and Teddy from Year 3 played for DTGFC U8's last weekend in their last football tournament of the season at Hucclecote FC festival of Football. They played six matches; won four, drew one and lost one. The whole team played excellent football with great team pass and move goals. Connie, also Year 3, was not able to play on this occasion, but was awarded the 'Most Improved Player' for U8s at their presentation evening.

Also, Katy, Imogen and Freya and their team, reached their first ever play-off final playing for DTGFC! They were super excited and they played amazingly well; some of the best football they have ever played. They played 6 matches in total and came home with the play off trophy!

What a fantastic achievement for everyone involved!

DIOCESE OF GLOUCESTER ACADEMY TRUST (DGAT) CONSULTATION

Thank you to those who attended either of the DGAT consultation parents' meetings earlier this week. We hope that you found the sessions useful and were able to gain answers to any questions that you may have had. If you were unable to make the meetings and would like to share any feedback or ask any unanswered questions, we would encourage you to do so using the online questionnaire via this link or by speaking with any of the School Governors. The consultation period ends on Monday 15th July, so we would ask that all questionnaires/feedback be received by 5pm on this date. If you are unable to access this link, paper copies of the feedback form are available from the school office.
